

Lions Foundation of Canada Dog Guides

We help people living with physical disabilities and medical conditions as well as organizations supporting individuals experiencing traumatic situations. Lives are being transformed by creating exceptional partnerships between people and Dog Guides.

Dog Guide University has seven programs:

- Canine Vision – For people who are blind or visually impaired
- Hearing – For people who are deaf or hard of hearing
- Autism Assistance – For children who have autism spectrum disorder
- Service – For people who have a physical or medical disability
- Seizure Response – For people who have epilepsy
- Diabetes Alert – For people who have type 1 diabetes with hypoglycemic unawareness
- Facility Support – For professional agencies assisting individuals in traumatic situations

Scholarship Program Q & A

Who/where will the scholarship go to?

LFCDG is a national charity, with clients and donors from across the country. No matter who your scholarship recipient is, or where they live, your impact is immeasurable.

When will the scholarship be assigned?

We strive to thoughtfully pair scholarships with graduating teams, ensuring that your donation supports the stage of the training you choose.

How will we know who the scholarship goes to?

You will be notified when your scholarship is applied to a graduating team. You will also be invited to their graduation and recognized for the important role you played in their success.

Can we contact the recipient of the scholarship?

Our clients' privacy is paramount. They will receive your name and contact information. There is no requirement that they be in contact or share any information, and we respect whatever choice they make.

Scholarship Program

Tuition isn't cheap!

Dog Guides are provided at no cost to recipients because we believe that everyone deserves the opportunity to live a fulfilling life, regardless of their circumstances.

It costs $35,000 to breed, train, and place each Dog Guide team. Additionally, the foundation will provide follow-up support to graduates for the entire working life of the Dog Guide.

Lions Foundation of Canada Dog Guides (LFCDG) receives zero government funding and relies solely on donations from individuals, service clubs, organizations and corporations.

"Before Forest, Tommy had a hard time regulating her emotions. Her anxiety often got the best of her, resulting in heightened emotional behaviours. Since receiving Forest, Tommy's anxious episodes have diminished considerably. Forrest has had such a positive and meaningful impact on Tommy and our family. We cannot imagine life without Forest." Amy, mother of Autism Assistance Program Graduate Tommy
